¹ The fees are applied in accordance with the General Terms of Liquidation of ABLV Bank, AS in Liquidation. The fee is charged per set of documents containing the documents concerning one transaction of transfer of the admitted creditor's claim.

² The fee is calculated based on the portfolio monthly average market value equivalent in EUR. The fee is withheld monthly in EUR unless other currency is designated by a client. The portfolio monthly average market value is calculated and the fee is withheld applying the respective currency rate set by the European Central Bank on the relevant day of the month.

⁴ Where an order for transfer is received by ABLV Bank, AS in liquidation (hereinafter — the Company) no later than one hour before the end of the clients and creditors servicing time, the same working day of the Company is considered the day of accepting the order for execution; in case the order for transfer is received later, it is considered accepted for execution on the following working day of the Company.

⁷ The Company makes payments to payment or credit institutions in Latvia. Execution of payments to other jurisdictions is possible after coordination of payment details with the Company. The said condition does not apply to the return of overpayments after the repayment of all liabilities.

⁸ EEA countries — all EU member states (Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, United Kingdom), as well as Iceland, Liechtenstein, and Norway.

¹⁰ Only payments of third-party funds amounting to 15 000.01 EUR or more. The Company may withhold the fee from the payment amount. Other banks involved in the payment execution may withhold fees from the payment amount.

¹² The need to apply VAT is considered individually, taking into account the nature of the service rendered.
